Many of the projects in the book have been taught at national bead shows and the Monet's Impressions - Water Lily was a finalist in the 2009 Bead Dreams competition. Biographie de l'auteur Elizabeth has been beading since March 2003 when she and her young daughter started BeadJeweled, Inc. At first she began with stringing but was soon intrigued with the endless possibilities offered by seed beads. Elizabeth has been teaching at national bead shows since 2005. She has been a finalist in both the Bead Dreams competition and Fire Mountain Gems competition. Elizabeth is drawn to the three-dimensional aspects of fitting beads together. Many of her designs resemble traditional jewelry but are constructed with seed beads. She lives and works in Tampa, Florida.
